COURSE INFORMATION

THE THEOLOGY OF FRANCIS TURRETIN

In the following:

* = available at ccel.org (http://www.ccel.org/)
ª = available in properly paginated form at Making of America (http://www.hti.umich.edu/m/moa/)
¤ = available at or linked by Reformation Ink (http://homepage.mac.com/shanerosenthal/reformationink/index.html)
º = available at or linked by Biblecentre.net (http://www.biblecentre.net/)
◊ = available at papalencycicals.net
□ = available at www.vatican.va/archive

Links to the first four of these sites appear on my resource page at http://www.geocities.com/dennisjowers/resources.html. Materials not available online are to be placed on reserve for photocopying.

1. Requirements: assigned readings; class participation; a sermon or paper (minimum 2,000 words; to be turned in at the class before the final exam) on the relevant topic of the student's choice; mid-term and final exams.

2. Grading: mid-term 30%; sermon or paper 35%; final 35%.

3. Reading Schedule

1. The concept and method of theology

2. Scripture
   Readings: Ibid., topic 2, qq. 10-21.

3. The Trinity

4. Predestination to salvation and damnation
   Readings: Ibid., topic 4, qq. 9-18.

5. Providence in general
   Readings: Ibid., topic 6.

6. The covenant of nature and original sin
   Readings: Ibid., topic 8 and topic 9, qq. 9-12.

7. The moral law

8. Mid-term

9. The covenant of grace

10. The atonement
    Readings: Ibid., topic 14, qq. 13-14.

11. Faith
    Readings: Ibid., topic 15, qq. 7-17.
12. No class (Evangelical Theological Society convention)

13. Church and state

   Readings: Turretin, Institutes, vol. 3, topic 18, qq. 24, 29-34.

14. The idea of a sacrament

   Readings: Ibid., topic 19, qq. 1-10.

15. Final