

Cilicia, via Sidon, to Myra in Lycia (Acts 27:3-5), where it became necessary to disembark and board a second vessel, a large cargo ship from Cilicia, where in both places they were met by Christian brethren. Taking courage from them, Paul passed on and came finally to Rome (Acts 28:11-16).

MAP 91

THE CHURCHES OF ASIA

Moody Bible Atlas
P. 179

- city
- city (not mentioned in the Bible)
- ★ one of the Seven "Churches" (cities) of Asia (Rev. 1-3)
- principal Roman road
- Roman provincial name

LYCIA
© 1985 The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago

A man p alchem Christ one h somei gious excess part, l of insu Judaisn terly r Rome' Jewish commi price. trigue phere tion w It rapid A.D. 6 Caesar when sacrifici desecr author violen Jews quickl provincial capital: Ephesus in Galatia and Caesarea in provincial territories established and administered by the Romans. At the same time, the older loyalties - tribal, were situated in the native region of Phrygia.

Harper Atlas of The Bible, p. 186

- colony
- baths
- ▲ legionary centre
- road (certain)
- - - road (possible)

24°

26°

28°

30°

H.B. Swete commentary - back pages

ASIA MINOR
 in the time of Domitian showing the Provinces and chief roads

